IMPORTANT GOVERNMENT ORDERS

DEVELOPMENT SECRETARIAT

Issues a set of rules regulating joining time in respect of the employees of Government Industrial Concerns.

READ—

Government Order No. D. 2086-92—I. & C. 252-38-18, dated the 28th October 1941, issuing a set of uniform work service rules for regulating leave and other benefits to employees in Government Industrial Establishments.

2. Letter No. 81, dated the 16th January 1945, from the Convenor, Board of Management of Industrial Concerns, stating that no provision has been made in the Work Service Rules, sanctioned in the Government Order, dated 28th October 1941, read above, for allowing joining time and salary or wages to employees during this period, when transferred from one institution to another and forwarding a draft set of rules approved by the Board of Management for regulating the joining time applicable to the employees and requesting in the circumstances explained, approval of the Government for the said rules.

ORDER No. D. 7701-11 (1)—I. & C. 401-44-2, DATED BANGALORE, THE 16TH MAY 1945.

The rules as per annexure are approved and will take effect from the date of this order.

ANNEXURE.

JOINING TIME RULES.

1. The transfer of the services of an employee from one Government Industrial Concern to another must be done only in the interests of both the institutions and when such transfers will not adversely affect the total cost of the sanctioned establishment. The approval of the Board of Management of Industrial Concerns of Government, as the case may be, must be obtained in other cases.

2. When the transfer involves a change of station, the employees may be allowed joining time not exceeding seven days, including the period of journey. During the period of joining time the employees may be allowed the pay or wages he was drawing in the concern from which he is transferred or of the pay of the new appointment, whichever is less.

Note.—Joining time and allowances are not admissible in the case of an employee transferred at his own

3. The joining time allowance and the travelling allowance, if admissible, will be paid by the concern to which the employee is transferred.

4. When the transfer involves no change of station, an officer relieved in the forenoon should join the new appointment in the afternoon and when relieved in the afternoon, on the following working day. If he overstays the leave he will forfeit his pay or wages after the end of the joining time.

5. The above rule (4) will not, however, affect the utilisation of joining time by an employee who is already on or granted privilege or furlough leave at the time his transfer is ordered. The joining time will follow immediately after the expiry of leave granted.
